Then Jesus speaks to them about the Scriptures and also breaks bread with them. This encounter explains the destiny of the Church, Pope Francis said. The Christian community travels down the road. On the road, the church “encounters people with their hopes and disappointments, burdensome at times. The Church listens to everyone’s stories as they emerge from the treasure chest of personal conscience, in order to then offer the Word of life, the witness of love, a love that is faithful until the end.
